

Data Flow Systems, Inc. opposes ITA's request to coordinate all I/B frequencies below 512 MHz. DFS believes that granting this request would jeopardize the existing telemetry licenses (many of long-standing) held by utilities, especially water and wastewater utilities. This comment is based on experience in the state of Florida, where two counties are presently experiencing radio interference due to the the frequency they have been licensed on being coordinated to geographically near-by business interests.